

“Take A Look Around You (Can't Deny)”

When I wake up in the morning on the wrong side of my bed
I have a hard time sleeping
(Uuh) It hurts my head
I'm already dead and so is your love
Well, there is nothing (nothing) here between us (here between us)
Below or above

So oh uh oh uh ooh
You can't deny
What's happening here is so sad, so sad
Take a look around you
What do you fear?
It's so, so sad what's happening here

Don't try your tricks or play your games on me
I figured you out, yes I see you
(Uuh) just let me be
You can say what you want and do what you do
But I'm not (not) only here (only here for)
For you to screw

So oh uh oh uh ooh
You can't deny
What's happening here is so sad, so sad
Take a look around you
What do you fear?
It's so, so sad what's happening here

solo

So oh uh oh uh ooh
You can't deny
What's happening here is so sad, so sad
Take a look around you
What do you fear?
It's so, so sad what's happening here

So why color the day in the darkest colors,
When light leads the way to,
Wherever you go?
So, don't be afraid to pursue your direction
And tear down the walls that prevents your, realization

So oh uh oh uh ooh
You can't deny
What's happening here is so sad, so sad
Take a look around you
What do you fear?
It's so, so sad what's happening here

Yes it is
So, so sad what's happening here
So, so sad what's happening here
